O R D E R :

In the reference 3rd read above, the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Andhra Pradesh, while furnishing the cadre strength particulars of the Special Grade Deputy Collectors and Deputy Collectors has requested the Government to accord permission to conduct Departmental Promotion Committee for filling up of vacant posts of Deputy Collectors.

2. Government after examining the matter observed that the Deputy Collector post in Revenue Department is a vital post in District Administration and discharges multifarious functions assisting the District Collector in day to day administration. The requisitions are being received from various corporations / Boards / Other Departments, etc., to depute officers in the Deputy Collector Cadre. Further the General elections are coming very soon and it would be difficult to withdraw Deputy Collectors posted in different departments. As such there may be a dire need to fill up all the vacant posts of Deputy Collectors to perform the election related works of the ensuing general elections.

3. The Government after careful examination of the matter have decided and order to fill up 47 vacant posts of Deputy Collectors by affecting ad-hoc promotions purely on temporary basis from the feeder categories i.e., Tahsildars, Superintendents from Heads of Departments and Section Officers as per seniority list as per roster points, subject to condition that the promoted candidates will be reverted soon completion of the ensuing general elections (Assembly and Parliamentary Elections).

4. The Chief Commissioner to Land Administration, Andhra Pradesh shall furnish the names of the eligible Tasildars / Superintendents fit for promotion as per inter-se-seniority list prepared based on respective feeder categories along with roster points in continuation of the ad-hoc promotions affected during 2017. He shall also furnish the roster points earmarked to the Rule of Reservation and their adequacy.

5. The General Administration (SU.I) Department shall also furnish the names of eligible Section Officers fit for promotion working in the Andhra Pradesh Secretariat for considering for ad-hoc promotions to the post of Deputy Collector purely on temporary basis / ad-hoc promotion.

6. The above information shall be furnished immediately.
